Senior Partners Care

How Does SPC Work?

Minnesota seniors who meet the program's eligibility requirements submit an application to Senior Community Services. Upon acceptance, clients who use SPC healthcare partners for Medicare-approved services are eligible to have the balance on medical services and treatments (after Medicare payment) waived.

Who Provides the Care?

SPC has partnered with most of the major metropolitan area hospitals and hundreds of clinics and providers statewide. These healthcare providers (SPC partners) have agreed to consider a waiver of Medicare deductibles, coinsurance and co-payments.

Who is Eligible for Senior Partners Care?

Program participants must:

- receive care by participating medical providers
- have both Medicare A & B
- meet income and asset thresholds
- submit an application and an application fee

Senior Partners Care

Senior Partners Care (SPC) enables Minnesota seniors to get the care they need by bridging the financial gap between their medical bills and their Medicare coverage.

What Services Are Covered?

SPC is not insurance, HMO, PPO or Medicare supplement. The program does not pay bills. To receive support, SPC enrollees must use SPC medical health care provider partners, and the service or care to be provided must be allowed by Medicare.

Most treatments or services you receive from an SPC partner that are covered by Medicare should be covered by this program.

The decision to waive a Medicare deductible, coinsurance or co-payment is made by the SPC partner based on a determination of the enrollee's financial need.
